

Internship Opportunity: Finance / Internal Audit

indie's internship program is designed for driven individuals who are looking for hands-on, real-world job experience with guidance and mentorship. Our program focuses on expanding skill sets, building upon education, and providing professional support within the Autotech industry. Interns will engage with actual customer projects, both in the lab and with indie's global teams, with the opportunity to provide meaningful contributions to new software development, product designs, and more.

internship Overview:

indie's internship program is designed for driven individuals who are looking for hands-on, real-world job experience with guidance and mentorship. Our program focuses on expanding skill sets, building on your existing education and providing professional support within the Autotech industry and various fields.

Job Summary:

- Experience the function and role of Internal Audit within a multi-national publicly traded company.
- Learn how to apply concepts of risk assessment and how to design audit procedures.
- Develop skills to for clear, effective and concise audit documentation
- Participate in team meetings and training sessions to sharpen your business acumen
- Opportunity to rotate to other departments during the internship to gain even more experience

Requirements:

- Current enrollment in an undergraduate or fifth year Master's degree in Finance, Accounting, Economics, Data Analytics or other related major. (All strong candidates are encourage to apply)
- Attention to detail and a high level of accuracy in all work.
- Ability to stay organized, meet deadlines, and prioritize.
- Ability to communicate clearly and concisely, both in writing and verbally.
- Legal Authorization to work in the United States without visa sponsorship.

Internship Location: Aliso Viejo, CA